

FULL CIRCLE SUMMER CAMP

GREATER GREEN BAY YMCA
DAY CAMP FOR AGES 7-15

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Welcome to our summer day camp at the Y, specially designed for the Full Circle program, serving children with neurodivergent disabilities! Our camp offers a safe, inclusive, and engaging environment where children can thrive and make lasting memories. With a focus on fun and meaningful activities, our camp provides opportunities for growth, friendship, and exploration. From exciting games and crafts to outdoor adventures and group activities, every day is filled with new experiences tailored to the unique needs and interests of each camper. Join us for a summer of joy, learning, and connection at the Y's Full Circle Summer Camp.

OUR STAFF

Depending on the participant's needs, our ratios are about 1 staff to 5 participants or fewer. Each staff brings unique gifts, talent, and experience to support our goal of deepening our Y's mission of being a place for all. Where children with unique abilities can thrive in a safe, inclusive, and engaging environment.

HEALTH FORMS

Health forms are required and must be submitted to Full Circle Camp at least a week prior to the participant's camp session. Find forms online at www.greenbayymca.org/inclusionprograms.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

If you plan to use CLTS funding please contact your caseworker prior to registration to ensure fees will be covered. Everybody belongs at Y camp. The YMCA provides membership and program scholarships for those in need. Financial assistance is made possible through a variety of grants, as well as through contributions to the YMCA's Annual Campaign. Please contact Rachael Trimble for more information.

CAMP FEES

All fees are due prior to the start of your camper's session. YMCA Membership is not required for participation.
